

Request for Extension of Time to Request a Screening Review Administrative Penalty System

Under the Municipality's Administrative Penalty System (APS), individuals have the right to 'Request an Extension of Time to Request a Screening Review'. The Hearing Officer may grant an extension only if the Applicant demonstrates, on a balance of probabilities, the existence of mitigating or extenuating circumstances that warrant an extension of time. 'Mitigating' or 'Extenuating' circumstances is defined in the Municipality's 'Extension of Time Procedure for Administrative Penalty System (APS)', as follows: "Unforeseen or exceptional situations beyond a person's control that justify or explain a failure to meet a requirement or deadline. These circumstances are typically serious in nature and must have a significant impact on the person's ability to act within the prescribed time frame."

Deadline to Submit

If the Person has not requested a Screening Review of their Penalty Notice on or before the 15th day after the Penalty Notice was issued, they may request an Extension of Time to Request a Screening Review. The Person shall make this request no later than 30 calendar days after the issued date on the Penalty Notice.
