Request for refunds for withdrawn Zoning Bylaw Amendments must be made in writing to the Municipal Planner.

Refunds may be granted for:

- The withdrawal of a Minor Variance Application or Zoning Bylaw Amendment prior to internal circulation, in which case 80% of an application fee may be granted.
- The withdrawal of a Minor Variance Application or Zoning Bylaw Amendment Application after internal circulation but prior to the Notice of Hearing being mailed, in which case 50% of an application fee may be granted.

Schedule 'C' to Bylaw 2026-001

Planning Department Fees

There shall be no refund for withdrawal of a Minor Variance Application or Zoning Bylaw Amendment Application once a Notice of Hearing has been mailed.

<sup>2</sup>Zoning Bylaw Amendment – Major and Minor: The fee for the Zoning Bylaw Amendment Application is divided into two categories. A Major Zoning Bylaw Amendment Application is a Zoning Bylaw Amendment that (one or more may apply):

- Requires an amendment to the County of Hastings Official Plan;
- Requires studies or reports to support the Application;
- Requires extensive consultation and collaboration with external agencies;
- Constitutes a change of use to permit new Commercial, Industrial, Extractive or Institutional uses
- Constitutes a substantial increase in density;
- Constitutes a substantial increase in the development envelope or density for existing Commercial, Industrial, Extractive or Institutional uses.

A Minor Zoning Bylaw Amendment Application is a Zoning Bylaw Amendment that (one or more may apply):

- Applies to a single parcel or land for low density residential use, including the construction of an additional dwelling unit;
- Permits additional ancillary or accessory uses or structures that are compatible with the existing Zone and Official Plan policies;
- Permits minor increases in floor area, height, parking areas, etc., for existing Commercial, Industrial or Institutional uses;
- Clarifies existing zone boundaries through a professional evaluation (i.e., a qualified professional providing revised environmental protection boundaries, hazard land boundaries, etc.); or
- Is considered a technical or housekeeping application, such as an undersized lot area or deficient lot frontage for an existing lot of record or a condition of Consent (severance) when no studies or reports are required.

<sup>3</sup>Minor Variance or Permission Application – Category 1 and 2: The fee for Minor Variance or Permission is divided into two Categories. A Category 1 Application is a Minor Variance or Permission Application that includes one or more of the following elements:

- A Minor Variance or Permission Application for a property subject to a site plan or other development agreement with the Municipality;
- Requires studies or reports to support the application;
- Requires consultation and collaboration with external agencies beyond the minimum requirements of the Planning Act.

A Category 2 Application is any other Minor Variance or Permission Applications.

<sup>4</sup>Site Plan Control Application – Major and Minor: The fee for a Site Plan Control Application is divided into Major and Minor. Major Site Plan Control involves the following:

- Requiring studies and reports to be completed as part of the Application; or
- Commercial, industrial, institutional developments equal to or greater than 600 sq. metres; or
- Multiple residential development
- New or expanded tourist establishment uses.

Minor Site Plan Control is any other Site Plan Control Application.

<sup>5</sup>Deposits: The Municipality may require the payment of deposits for land use planning matters. Deposits may be applied to cover peer review fees, professional fees should the Municipality require the expertise or advice of a third-party consultant (engineer, planner, surveyor, etc.), as well as any legal costs

Schedule 'C' to Bylaw 2026-001

Planning Department Fees

incurred. The Municipality has full discretion on hiring a third- party consultant or lawyer that is best appropriate in accordance with any applicable policies, bylaws or standards. Deposits may also be applied to any registration fees, disbursements, reproduction costs, postage, advertising, telephone charges, facsimile charges, and any other reasonable costs which may be incurred by the Municipality.

Should fees exceed the initial deposit received, the Municipality shall request further deposits or payments of invoices. Additional funds may be requested from time to time, to fully cover the municipal expenses. Work will not be completed by the Municipality, its solicitor or consultants until such deposit has been paid by the applicant.

The Municipality will keep an accurate record of all costs incurred with respect to planning applications. Upon completion of the processing of an application, the Municipality will reconcile the account for the applications where a deposit has been paid. A refund of the deposit will be made with the exception of those costs incurred by the Municipality, as determined by the Treasurer. If the cost for such services exceeds the deposit, the applicant will be responsible for the additional costs and will pay such costs upon invoice by the Municipality.
